Booking Conditions

Your contract is with Adventure Extreme. Adventure Extreme is a wholly owned subsidiary of Adventure Travel International Ltd (ATI Ltd.) registered in Belize No. 22391. Registered Office 60 Market Square, Belize City, Belize. Below are the details of the terms and conditions of the agreement. Please read them carefully. When you make a booking and we accept it a legally binding contract is made.

1) A non-refundable deposit of 25% for each person must be sent with the signed booking form. The balance is due for payment 6 weeks before the departure date. If you book less than 6 weeks before the departure date, full payment must be received before the booking can be accepted. If the balance is not paid in time we reserve the right to cancel your course and apply the cancellation charges outlined below.

2) If you wish to cancel, this must be done in writing by the person whose name the course is invoiced to. If we receive notice of the cancellation up to 6 weeks before the departure date you will merely forfeit your deposit. After that date you will be additionally liable for the following cancellation charges.

Less than 6 weeks before the departure date: 100% of the price. If after starting the course you decide to leave early then no refunds for any part thereof (including accommodation) will be given.

Please note that if the reason for cancellation falls within the terms of your insurance policy, then the insurance company will normally refund any such charges to you. The insurance premium is forfeited on cancellation.

3) We reserve the right, in any circumstance to cancel your course. However, in no case will we cancel your course less than 6 weeks before the scheduled departure date. We do not accept liability for damages or costs incurred in respect of any cancellation on any account whatsoever.

4) It is in the nature of a course of this kind to be flexible. Day to day agenda and ultimate goal is taken as an aim and not as a contractual obligation, and as such is dependent on weather conditions at the time.

5) It is necessary for you to abide by the authority of the leader, who represents Adventure Extreme (ATI Ltd.). Signing our booking form signifies your agreement to this.

If in the opinion of the leader your behaviour is detrimental to your own, or the safety and welfare of the group as a whole or if, the leader considers your general well being will be put at risk by continuing with the course, you may be asked to leave the course without the right to any refund.

6) Your booking is accepted on the understanding that you realise the potential risks and hazards that can be involved in courses of this kind. Adventure Extreme (ATI Ltd.), along with our guides/leaders and anyone else working in association with us cannot be held responsible for any accident or mishap that may occur in connection with any part of, or services connected with the course.

7) Medical vaccinations and other preliminary arrangements including all passport, visa procurements and international flights are entirely your responsibility and we accept no responsibility in the event that these are not completed in time for departure.

8) To take part it is compulsory to be covered by travel insurance to include paragliding, which must include the cost of repatriation if you become too ill to continue. Check with your supplier that paragliding is definitely covered, as not all companies do this. It should be stipulated on your form/letter from them. (In fact sometimes it is excluded). Travel Insurance document should be carried with you.

9) Adventure Extreme (ATI Ltd.) will not be held responsible for missed connections, costs, or delays caused by any aspect of transfer or travel arrangements.

10) No financial dealings will be entered into on your behalf between you and any hire equipment supplier and us.
